

The Arne is a thoroughly modern settee boasting a number of unforgettable decorative flourishes. A single horizontal channel on its back, a full-length rolled lumbar pillow and contrasting upholstery on the seat's corners all contribute to the subtly sophisticated look of the piece. Its sculpted frame rests on a recessed wood base with tapered round legs, which serve as the final elegant touches of the Arne's refined design.

Available in custom sizes.

