

The Bentley is a round U-shaped banquette which perfectly balances comfort and design flourishes. Its key features include a series of loose seat cushions, a single row of button tufts along its inback and sculpted arms capping its ends. It is built in multiple sections which are precisely ganged together and rest on tapered wood block legs.

Available in custom sizes.

