

The Kimia is a timeless sofa which represents the ideal balance between sophisticated style and supreme comfort. It features a number of classic design elements including distinguished rolled arms, ample loose seat cushions and a border of decorative nailhead trim. Jamie Stern offers a wide variety of wood finishes, cushion fills and nailhead colors, all of which can be combined with unique dimensions to create the perfect customized piece for any interior.

Available in custom sizes.

