

The Lake Street Banquette's serpentine frame features precise curves, a distinguishing wood apron and vertical channels along its entire inback. These impressive aesthetic features are combined with its ample seating to create an unforgettable piece of furniture.

Available in custom sizes.

