

Built in two pieces and ganged together, the Zamir Banquette features loose seat cushions, subtle vertical channeling on its inback and an upholstered border that continues down two rounded arms.

Available in custom sizes.

