

The Salter Banquette's large back features a number of horizontal channels which tower over a traditional tight waterfall seat and recessed wood plinth base.

Available in custom sizes and configurations.

