

The Williams Sectional's singular appearance is due in large part to the refined diamond tufting throughout its seat and inback. The precision and depth that these details lend the piece are further supported by two elevated arms, a fully upholstered apron and tapered wood legs. The resulting sectional is both stylish and chic while remaining undeniably intimate.

Available in custom sizes.

